(Any change of circumstances throughout the playing season must, without fail, be reported to the league gen. secretary)

Please be aware that :

- (1) As an official of the club you are held ultimately responsible for the actions of the team and your team supporters.
- (2) Should a registered official leave the club, the Club Secretary, or the official concerned, should contact the league and effect a de-registration. This is necessary to relieve the official concerned of accepted responsibilities for the club. Please note that in these cases, the issued ID card must be returned to the league to effect full de-registration.
- (3) Should a Club Secretary wish to leave a club, a new secretary must be accepted prior to any such de-registration being accepted by the league.
- (4) The Club Secretary is held responsible for the payment of any fines that are issued to players or the club itself.
- (5) The Club Secretary is held responsible for the communication of all league business to specific council members and all issues regarding confirmation of fixtures, confirmation of officials, reporting results, notification of detail changes and all other issues that are shown in the league directives manual.
- (6) Appeals from clubs are only accepted from the Club Secretary, and the Team Manager, as registered by the club with the Solihull and District Oakbourne Football League at the time of the appeal being received.
